The screenshot shows a web interface for a university. At the top, there's a dark green header with the word "University" on the left and navigation links "LOG IN" and "SIGN UP" on the right. Below the header, there are two tabs: "Log In" and "Create Account". The "Create Account" tab is active. Under this tab, there's a text prompt "Enter the code you received below to register". Below this prompt is a light gray input field labeled "Code". A red oval highlights this input field and the "VALIDATE" button below it. A red arrow points from the "VALIDATE" button to a large teal overlay box on the right side of the screen. This box contains the text "Great, you will be able to access your digital library soon!". At the bottom of the page, there's a row of book covers, including one by Cassandra Frangos titled "CRACK THE".
